MEXICAN RAIDERS MURDER BOY ON AMERICAN SOIL

Carranza's Governor of Tabasco Assassinated By Mutilious Soldiers

[Associated Press by Federal Wireles]
WASHINGTON, D. C., Sept. 7.—Another murder on the part of Mexican raiders into American territory, said to be by regular soldiers attached to the Carranza forces, was reported yesterday from Nogales, Arizona, and a detail from the 10th Cavalry is now out in a search for the Mexicans. The raiders crossed the line and attacked an American, Jim Hathaway, and a Mexican boy accompanying him. The boy was shot and killed and Hathaway's horse was shot under him. Yesterday despatches reached the state department that the 600 Carranzistas composing the Frontera garrison have revolted. They assassinated the governor of Tabasco and other state officials. The Carranza troops have captured Paredon, in Tamaulipas, some 80 miles south of the Texas border.

[Associated Press by Federal Wireles]

"The work of the commission is ended," said Mr. Walsh, "and the work of applying the remedies pointed out now belongs to you."

GERMANY NOT WORRIED

[Associated Press by Federal Wireles]
WASHINGTON, D. C., September 7.—In the absence of details of the sinking of the Allan Line steamer Hesperian, the attitude of the administration on the question of submarine attacks remains unchanged.

Ambassador Gerard has been instructed to learn the facts regarding the attack and to notify the state department immediately. A voluntary explanation by German authorities is regarded as not improbable.

Until details of the sinking of the Hesperian have been learned no comment will be made by the president or secretary of state.

It is said on good authority, however, that high officials are not disposed to question the faith of the recent assurances by Germany that submarine commanders have been instructed not to attack liners without warning.

BERLIN, Germany, September 7.—The Hesperian case is viewed calmly here. The press is making no comment, awaiting details from the commander of the submarine which is supposed to have sent the Hesperian to the bottom. The report is not expected for a week.

QUEENSTOWN, Ireland, September 7.—Twenty-six persons went down with the Allan Line steamer Hesperian when she was torpedoed by a German submarine. The death total was determined today, and is considered accurate, although the list contains the names of six who have not been accounted for.

Of the twenty-six who lost their lives, six were passengers in the first cabin, six in the third, and thirteen were members of the crew. One survivor, a woman, died here. Eight of the victims were killed outright by the blast which tore the ship's hull apart.

A Mrs. Chatham of Montreal, one of the passengers, says she was leaning over the rail of the ship just before it was struck, and declares she saw the torpedo approach the ship.

This step will be taken, according to the report, to obviate the necessity of obtaining recognition from foreign nations.

This raid, the largest of the day, was participated in by forty machines, the occupants of which showered bombs down upon the chosen points of attack with disastrous results to the Germans.

A German aeroplane which crossed the Allies' lines before Calais, was forced to descend by a French machine and the German crew were made prisoners.

Use Big Kites to Get Pictures of Floor and Boiling Lava at Kilauea

Kite flying on a large scale has been carried on for several months past at the volcano of Kilauea in order to obtain pictures of the crater floor. The work is under the direction of J. F. Haworth, assisted by Louis Meese. Both men are of Pittsburg, Penn., and have been in the kite flying business for years. The work is being done in connection with topographical map modeling of the entire crater floor.

The accompanying pictures are as follows: Upper left-hand corner, Meese and Haworth attaching the camera to the kite wire several hundred feet below the kite. Upper center, kite and camera high in the air and ready for the target to be sent up which will snap the shutter. Upper right-hand, gasoline engine and pulley used to haul in the kite. The target is seen directly over the engine on its way up the wire to the camera. Center oval, kite just rising from the ground, preparatory to flight; lower right-hand corner, taking off the camera after exposure has been made.

The Haworth party is stopping at the Royal Hawaiian Hotel. The members will sail for San Francisco on the Wilhelmina on Wednesday.

QUICK TO LEARN OF SANITATION FROM JAPANESE HOSPITAL WORKERS

Health conditions in Honolulu are steadily on the way to betterment, in the opinion of Dr. H. Sakai of the Japanese Charity Hospital. According to the patronage of the hospital during the last few months people all over the city are learning the important lesson that sickness must be attended to early, if serious results are to be avoided. Furthermore the lessons in sanitation which are being constantly taught by the hospital nurses and the Palama Settlement workers are having their fruit.

"Not many months ago it was a common thing for patients to appear at the charity hospital in the last stages of disease fully expecting that the doctors would be able to vanquish any germs, known or unknown, by a sort of medical jiu jitsu. This erroneous impression has been gradually weeded out of the minds of the Japanese of all classes in this city. They are coming to learn that medicine is not a superstition but a science and when they have learned that one lesson thoroughly it is my hope to cut down the percentage of deaths in the hospital to the lowest possible amount," says Dr. Sakai.

Figures show how efficient the work is already. Of 110 patients who were treated in the hospital during the last month only four died, three from natural causes and a fourth as the result of an operation which was practically hopeless before the patient was laid upon the operating table.

The hospital is running full, every ward except one being packed to the limit and the hospital is in need of the new building which is now contemplated. Plans for a fine new structure to take the place of the present old rambling frame building are now being designed by architects and will be presented for the approval of the hospital authorities within the next month.

DECIMAL SYSTEM OF COINAGE FOR GREAT BRITAIN IS BEING URGED

LONDON.—Proposals to establish a decimal system of coinage in Great Britain are again receiving attention in the newspapers. The latest advocates are soldiers returning from France who have become accustomed to the decimal system in use there, and have quickly recognized its advantages.

The proposal most generally indorsed in England is that the farthing be made the basis of the new system. There is already a coin of this denomination in use in England, its value being one-fourth of a penny, or about half of an American cent. It is proposed to make one hundred farthings equal to one florin (the common two-shilling piece of English coinage, equivalent to 50 cents American). This involves only a trifling change from the present system, whereby 96 farthings make one florin. Under the proposed system the units of money would be: 100 farthings make one florin; 10 florins make one pound. The shillings would thus become an intermediate coin, representing 50 farthings, and the six-pence a similar intermediate coin, representing 25 farthings.

had died in the service of his country but that as he had been her sole support she hoped the government could help her in some way.

The president's letter, given out at the White House, follows: "My Dear Madam—I have read your letter of August 3rd with the deepest sympathy. I feel like congratulating you on having had a son whose dignity it was to die in the service of his country, but my heart goes out to you none the less in profound sympathy."

"I am sure that it would be the desire of every one connected with the public service to see that you did not suffer need because of your son's death. I am sending your letter to the secretary of the navy to inquire whether there is any possibility under the law as it stands, of assisting you I fear that there is not, but I am sure the secretary of the navy will wish to consider the matter fully."

"Cordially and sincerely yours,"

WOODROW WILSON.

LAUNDRIES ARE SLOW AT PAYING LICENSE FEES

Only One-fourth of Those in City Have Presented Certificates and Paid Up

Only a trifle more than 25 per cent of the laundries of the city liable to a license fee under the law, have paid the fee, according to the books in the office of City and County Treasurer David L. Conkling.

Though it is difficult to state exactly how many laundries exist in the city without an investigating tour to ascertain those that have and have not gone out of business since last year, together with the number of laundries employing not more than two people, the treasurer estimates the list at practically 40 or 45. Of this list 13 have so far paid in their fees.

The total list of laundries is 160, as named on last year's list, but of the number many represent very small hand laundries, or women doing work for private families.

Of the estimated 40, only 35 laundries paid their fee last year. The fee for hand laundries is $25. For steam laundries, of which the city has four, the license fee is $50. These four have paid up according to the treasury officials.

"We can go out and prosecute delinquents if we have to," says Treasurer Conkling, "but of course we do not want to have to do that. I am not alarmed by the seeming slowness of the laundry men, however."

Mr. Conkling says that the evident negligence of the license payers is largely due to the fact that the laundries cannot present a certificate from the board of health before any laundry owner secures his license. Another law forbids the issuance of a license providing the man seeking it has not paid his taxes.

"Then there is the law just passed which exempts from the payment of the license fee all laundries which employ not more than two laborers, and of the 160 laundries of the city a very large number come under this list."

"We have collected so far, in license fees of various sorts," says Mr. Conkling, "more than $25,000, and I presume that is more by a considerable sum than any other tax collector has secured for the city and county in the same time."

ONE BIG ISLAND MAN MAY YET GO TO FLORIDA MEET

Although all members of the National Guard's rifle team to represent Hawaii at the national rifle shoot in Jacksonville, Florida, next month, have not yet been selected, it is expected that all the members now training will make the team.

In addition to the 14 Honolulu men now on the team it is probable that George Desha of Hilo, will be ordered here in time to practise next Sunday. The team is showing up fairly well, and will leave Honolulu, September 22, on the Matsonia for San Francisco, where a stop of several days may be made to see the exposition.

From the bay city the team will train for New Orleans, leaving on the Southern Pacific. Jacksonville will be reached in time to give the team the advantage of 13 days' practise under Florida shooting conditions. The national contest starts October 18, but individual members of the team will shoot in a number of other matches prior to the "big show."

TAFT BITTERLY ASSAILS WILSON FOREIGN POLICY

Denounces Harrison's Methods in Philippines; Raps Handling of Mexican Situation

[Associated Press by Federal Wireles]
SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 7.—William Howard Taft today broke his silence and made a bitter attack on the Wilson administration in regard to its conduct of affairs in the Philippine Islands and its policy toward Mexico.

In an address to the Commonwealth Club the former president declared Governor Harrison of the Philippines knows nothing about the islands, the people or their problems. He has removed all the experienced Americans from the conduct of public affairs. Mr. Taft asserted.

Calis Policy Ill-Advised.
"The ill-advised continuation of the administration policy in regard to the Philippines has reached the point," Mr. Taft said, "where it might well demand the attention of the government as much as Mexico."

"The administration's policy of so-called watchful, wistful waiting has dragged to the detriment of all concerned."
